Press Release

Commodity Supplemental Food Program For Seniors (CSFP)

On the second Thursday of each month at 11:30 am eligible residents over 60 will receive the Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) boxes at the Iron River Community Center.

The Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) works to improve the health of low-income persons at least 60 years of age by supplementing their diets with nutritious USDA Foods. CSFP participants must meet the poverty guidelines for the program which are $1307 for one person per month and $1760 for two people per month.

Food packages include a variety of foods such as nonfat dry and ultra high-temperature fluid milk, juice, farina, oats, ready to eat cereal, pasta, peanut butter, canned meat, poultry or fish and canned fruits and vegetables.

Anyone 60 and over who meets the income guidelines and lives in Northwest Wisconsin is encouraged to sign up. This program is sponsored by Northwest Wisconsin Community Services Agency (NWCSA).

Sign up at the Iron River Community Center on the second Thursday of the month at 11:30 am.
